Smile!

*Smile, you're on camera
Smile, they're still watching
Smile, they'll like you better this way*

*Soon you won't need to fake it
Soon none of the pain you deal with will matter
Soon it will be all better
Soon the bandages will arrive, mental and physical Soon something new will come*

*Something happy
Something exciting
Something meant only for you
Something that you will share, but only with yourself
Something that can make only you feel this way*

*Smile, there is worse
Smile, you're only starving by choice
Smile, those scars could've been avoided
Smile, you won't tie that knot
Smile, because right now, that's all you've got*
